City Council Citation

Whereas, a great city is only as great as those persons who give exemplary service to their communities, whether through participation in voluntary programs, through unique personal achievement in their professional or other endeavors or simply through a lifetime of good citizenry; and

Whereas, such service, which is truly the lifeblood of the community and the city, so often goes unrecognized and unrewarded; now therefore be it

Resolved, that as a duly elected member of The Council of the City of New York, I recognize that in

Cleve Overton

Juneteenth Griot Award Recipient Staten Island African American Political Association

we have an outstanding citizen, one who is worthy of the esteem of both the community and the great City of New York

In witness whereof
I have hereunto set my hand
